

NAWRS is Live!

The Native American Water Rights Settlement E-Repository (NAWRS) is a collection of documents used in settling and formalizing Native American water rights in the United States of America. Thirty settlements are represented in the collection. It can be viewed at:

<http://repository.nawrs.net> (repository) and

<http://NAWRS.net> (mapping tool)

NAWRS partners:

Francine Jaramillo, Senior Policy Analyst - American Indian Law Center, Albuquerque NM; Darcy Bushnell, Senior Staff Attorney, Utton Center, UNM – School of Law; Barbara Cosens, Professor of Law, University of Idaho – College of Law & Waters of the West Program; Karl Benedict, Ph.D. Director – Earth Data Analysis Center, UNM.

Supporters: the Native American Rights Fund, the National Congress of American Indians and the Western States Water Council.

A special Thank You to our funding partners – the U.S. Bureau of Indian Affairs and the Rocky Mountain Mineral Law Foundation.

For More Information, please contact

Darcy Bushnell bushnell@law.unm.edu 505-277-0551 or Francine Jaramillo Jaramillo@law.unm.edu 505-277-5462